

40-Hour Week

WAREHOUSE- STRIVE – FACTORIES – REPLACE – COUNTER – SPOKES - COUNTRY – LINE

There are people in this _____ who work hard every day

Not for fame or fortune do they _____

But the fruits of their labor are worth more than their pay

And it's time a few of them were recognized

Hello Detroit auto workers, let me thank you for your time

You work a forty hour week for a livin', just to send it on down the _____

Hello Pittsburgh steel mill workers, let me thank you for your time

You work a forty hour week for a livin', just to send it on down the line

This is for the one who swings the hammer, driving home the nail

Or the one behind the _____, ringing up the sale

Or the one who fights the fires, the one who brings the mail

For everyone who works behind the scenes

You can see them every morning in the
_____ and the fields

In the city streets and the quiet country towns

Working together like _____ inside a wheel

They keep this country turning around

Hello Kansas wheat field farmer, let me thank you for your time

You work a forty hour week for a livin', just to send it on down the _____ Hello West Virginia coal miner, let me thank you for your time

You work a forty hour week for a livin', just to send it on down the line

This is for the one who drives the big rig, up and down the road

Or the one out in the _____, bringing in the load

Or the waitress, the mechanic, the policeman on patrol

For everyone who works behind the scenes

With a spirit you can't _____ with no machine

Hello America let me thank you for your time

Alabama is an American country music band formed in Fort Payne, Alabama, in 1969. The band was founded by Randy Owen (lead vocals, rhythm guitar) and his cousin Teddy Gentry (bass, backing vocals). They were soon joined by another cousin, Jeff Cook (lead guitar, fiddle, and keyboards).
