

PUT THE EVENTS IN THE CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER

1. As a teenager, she was very sporty.
2. She has a happy childhood on a farm.
3. My grandma was born just after the Second World War.
4. As an elderly person, she started travelling.
5. When she grew up she married my grandfather.
6. As an adult, she worked hard and looked after her family.
7. She was a pretty baby with blonde curls.

CHOOSE THE CORRECT PREPOSITION

- She looked sad, so I tried to cheer her ON / UP.
- Our dog has run OFF / AWAY and we're trying to find it.
- Tony's aunt brought him UP / OUT because his parents died in an accident.
- I had an argument with my cousin last night, but we have made UP / OUT now.

FILL IN WITH THE MISSING VERB

- _____ a shower
- _____ ready for school
- _____ friends for a party
- _____ grandpa in summer
- _____ in love with someone
- _____ in a new house
- _____ out with friends
- _____ an exam :-(
- _____ an exam :-)
- _____ in cash for a pizza
- _____ out in a gym
- _____ a song in a choir
- _____ skiing in the mountains
- _____ someone a present
- _____ a good grade