

1 Complete the sentences with the verbs in the box.

break	run	put	pick	turn	walk	bring	drop	set	head
			keep		get	pull	take

0. After driving for four hours, we decided to over for a rest.
- 1 We decided to off the train at a tiny station in the countryside.
- 2 We were afraid the car would down, so we stopped at a service station for repairs.
- 3 Janet chose to away from her highly-paid job to become a tour guide.
- 4 We can you up for two nights, but then we'll need the spare room for my brother.
- 5 I'm afraid I can't you up at the station. Can you get a taxi instead?
- 6 Can you me off at the art museum on your way to work?
- 7 The weather was so hot that we decided to for the coast, where it was cooler.
- 8 I dislike it when friends up at my door without calling first.
- 9 If we off on our trip early in the morning, there won't be much traffic.
- 10 After hurting my foot, I couldn't up with the rest of the hikers.
11. It is not easy to children up to be decent people when they have so many outside influences.
12. Could you get some milk? We seem to have out of all the cartons.
13. Jenni and Tom really after their mother, they look almost the same.

2 Choose one word, A, B or C to complete both sentences.

0. I pulled and stopped the car so I could safely talk on the phone.
Just be patient. I'm sure the storm will besoon.
A in B over C out
- 1 If we put our tent too close to the water it might flood.
Hotel prices have gone a lot since last year. I can't find a place I can afford.
A out B up C away
- 2 By the time we got to London, we had almost run of money so we got our parents to send us some.
Do you want to go for a meal at a restaurant?
A for B on C out
- 3 After resting for a couple of hours, we decided to carry with our bike tour.
If your feet hurt, we can sit this bench for a while.
A in B on C out
- 4 This sofa turns a very comfortable bed when you fold it down.
Go the station on the north side and I'll be waiting for you inside.
A up B down C into
- 5 I'm sorry to hold you, but I need to send an email before we leave.
With her back injury, she had trouble picking her phone from the floor.
A in B down C up