SIMPLE PAST TENSE INTRODUCTION

Watch the video below and fill the chart below with the details related to the simple past tense:

Uses: (when or how do we use simple past)
Grammar:
Affirmative statements with regular verbs (use an example, too)
Affirmative statement with irregular verbs (use an example)
Negative statements (use an example)
Yes no questions and short answers (use an example)
WH questions (use an example)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

PRONUNCIATION OF REGULAR VERBS
(ED ENDINGS)

Watch the video below and fill the theory chart below. Then, drag and drop the regular verbs in the corresponding column according to their ed-pronunciation.

RULES:

Ed pronounced as [t]	Ed pronounced as [d]	Ed pronounced as [ɪd] or [əd]

Drag and drop the verbs below according to their correct pronunciation. Collocate them as in the horizontal order below.

Laughed	finished	killed	helped	wanted	hiked	rented covered	hunted	shouted	jumped	loved	started	realized
looked	seemed	stopped	turned	reached	pulled	covered
followed	locked	valued	Visited	Cried	Studied	Died

[t]	[d]	[ɪd]

LIVEWORKSHEETS

IRREGULAR PAST VERBS

Watch the video and pick 5 different irregular verbs from the video and write examples as indicated in the chart.

Affirmative past sentence	Negative past sentence
She woke up early yesterday morning	She didn't wake up early yesterday morning
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

LIVEWORKSHEETS