

Imperatives and Object Pronouns Workshop

Mark (✓) the Imperatives.

Don't throw the ball.	<input type="checkbox"/>	They run around the cones.	<input type="checkbox"/>
You catch the ball.	<input type="checkbox"/>	Jump very high.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Jump over it.	<input type="checkbox"/>	You find the ball.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Run fast!	<input type="checkbox"/>	Don't walk, run!	<input type="checkbox"/>

Unscramble the Imperatives:

1. get / hit / Don't

2. the / Kick / ball

3. the / ball / Throw

4. the / ball / Find

Look, read and click the correct object pronouns.

I like it / them.	I love it / them.	I don't like it / them.	I like it / them.
A stack of four board games: Scrabble, Monopoly, Boggle, and Cluedo. The Scrabble box is blue, Monopoly is green, Boggle is red, and Cluedo is yellow.	A black and white soccer ball.	A purple drawstring bag with several small, colorful balls (blue, green, yellow) spilling out of it.	A person in an orange shirt and black pants, holding a pool cue and aiming at a ball on a pool table.

Name: _____