

GR 4.39

LOCO PILOT TO OBEY CERTAIN ORDERS

DRAG THE FOLLOWING IMAGE AND DROP IT CORRECTLY

An engine has been attached to a train during the journey ,the loco pilot shall obey

a) the orders of the guard, in all matters affecting the starting, stopping or movement of the train for traffic purposes

b) all orders given by the SM or any railway servant acting under spl intructions so for as the safe and proper working of his engine will admit From the time an engine enters the traffic yard till it leaves the traffic yard. The loco pilot under the orders of station master.