It was about 6 pm when I heard a knock on the door. It _____ (be) Jason, my teenage neighbour. He looked cold and upset. "What's wrong, Jason?" "I _____ (lose) my key and I can't get into my house." "Come in. Today's not a day for long walks, or long waits," I looked out the window. It _____ (snow) hard and it was windy. The weather was getting _____ (bad) every hour. Jason _____ (take) off his coat and boots. His _____ (foot) were wet and I gave him a pair of socks to change into. A cup of hot tea and some biscuits soon made the boy feel warm. "Where are your parents, Jason?" "I _____ (not know)". I can't call them because of this," he pulled his phone out of his pocket and showed it to me – the screen _____ (break) and the phone was obviously dead. Jason focused on the food again. He took his _____ (four) biscuit and said: "I wish my mum could make biscuits like this."
