

Unit 6: Exercise 9

Read the information. Then look at these extracts from the passage you read in Exercise 8. Is it the writer's View or is it a Fact? Choose the correct answer.

In the IELTS Reading test, remember that you might be asked to read a passage where the writer is giving his or her views (or opinions) as well as presenting facts. Don't forget – an opinion is not the same as a fact!

Also, you will only be asked to identify the writer's views, not the views of anyone else.

- 1 In addition, it is increasingly common for people to create online reviews of hotels, restaurants and so on, after having experienced something while travelling.
☐ View ☐ Fact
- 2 It is, perhaps, regrettable if we go to a place and already know what we will find there.
☐ View ☐ Fact
- 3 Such photographs can tell you more about a place than any professional advertisement could, and it's likely that they are more honest.
☐ View ☐ Fact
- 4 According to another survey, the most common things to take are laptops, smartphones, tablets, digital cameras and e-readers.
