

GRAMMAR: COMPARATIVES.

1. WRITE THE COMPARATIVE AND SUPERLATIVE OF THE ADJECTIVES IN THE CHART.

ADJECTIVE	COMPARATIVO	SUPERLATIVO
Old
Famous
Sour
Good
Tasty
Healthy
Bad
Sweet
Cooked
Expensive
Cheap
Nice
Popular
Long
Near Terrible
Cheerful
Enthusiastic
Angry
Nervous

2. Complete the facts below. Use the correct form of the adjectives in brackets.

1. According to many experts, dark chocolate is(healthy) than milk chocolate.
2. Apples are(popular) than bananas.
3. In 2011, a British chocolate company made the(big) chocolate bar in the world. It weighed almost 6,000 kg!
4. Lemons don't taste as(sweet) strawberries, but they've got similar amounts of sugar.
5. In 2012, Restaurant Magazine chose Noma, a restaurant in Denmark, as the(good) restaurant in the world.
6. Saffron is the(expensive) spice in the world, so people don't use much of it.

3. Complete the sentences with the adjectives in brackets. Use too... or (not) ... enough.

1. This soup tastes excellent. It's(spicy).
2. I don't like this coffee. It's(sweet). I don't usually use so much sugar.
3. It's(hot) for us to eat outside. It's cooler inside.

4. The melon isn't ready to eat. It's(ripe).
5. Is this piece of cake(big) or do you want a bigger one?
6. I never eat at fancy restaurants. They're(expensive).
7. Our freezer is(cold). Nothing in it is frozen!
8. This milk isn't good any more. It's(old)

4. Re-write the sentences with too... or (not) ...enough.

1. The tomatoes were too hard.

The tomatoes were

2. I'm not strong enough to carry this box of fizzy drinks.

This box of fizzy drinks isfor me to carry.

3. It's too noisy in here!

It's not

4. The waiters here aren't fast enough.

The waiters here are