

R 2a. Read and choose the title.

Dogs are mammals.

They have got four legs, a tail and their bodies are covered by long or short fur.

Dogs have large teeth, they can run fast, jump and walk; they have strong muscles.

Dogs eat meat and vegetables and you can find dog food in every supermarket or pet shop.

A baby dog is called a “puppy”.

Dogs are “man’s best friends” because they can do many things.

For example, they can be guard dogs, police dogs and guide dogs for blind people.

Many dogs are pets, they live in our homes because they are very friendly and nice.

- The title is:
  - A.  Me and my dog.
  - B.  An incredible adventure.
  - C.  The dog, a very important animal.

R 2b. Cross only the true sentences.

- Dogs are mammals.
- 1.  Dogs aren't pets.
- 2.  Dogs can help people in many ways.
- 3.  You cannot buy the dog food.
- 4.  Their fur is always short.
- 5.  A puppy is a baby dog.