

Instructions: Listen, read, and complete.

The Rain Forests

Forests that get a lot of rain are called .
Rain forests have more than any other place on Earth. Most of the world's is in rain forests. They also make about twenty percent (20%) of the earth's . The rain forest is the largest rain forest on Earth.

Rain forests are important, but are cutting them down. What happen to the animals that live there? Animals like the , sloth, and spider monkey won't have a place to live. need to take care of the rain forests today, so that the earth stays
.

oxygen. freshwater

plants and animals

rain forests. Amazon

We people:

healthy in the future.

will macaw,

Instructions: Listen, read the text again and match.

1. How much of the earth's oxygen do the rain forests make?
2. What are people doing to the rain forests?
3. What are some animals that live in the rain forests?

people are cutting them down

macaw, sloth, and spider monkey

twenty percent (20%) of the earth's oxygen.

Instructions: Listen, and number.

Instructions: Listen, and complete. Then, answer T or F

Let's visit the !

, fire ants, and tarantulas live in the desert.

The desert is the driest and hottest .

We think that desert animals are plainer than rain animals.

- 1- They Will visit the rain forest.
- 2- The desert is the hottest and driest biome.
- 3- Camels, spider monkeys and tarantulas live in the desert.
- 4- Desert animals are more colorful than rain forest animals.