"If You Were A Sailboat"

by Katie Melua

If you were a cowboy, I would trail you

If you were a preacher

_____ , I'd nail you to the floor

If you were a sailboat I would sail you to the shore

If you were a river I would swim you

If you were a piece of wood

If you were a house _____

_____ I'd begin to change my ways

Sometimes I believe in fate

I would live in you all my days

But the chances we create

Always seem to ring more true

You took a chance

_____ on loving me

I took a chance on loving you

If I was in jail, _____

I believe in fate

If I was a telephone you'd ring me all day long

If I was in pain, I know you'd sing me soothing songs

Sometimes _____

I know you'd spring me

But the chances we create

Always seem to ring more true

_____ on loving me

You took a chance

I took a chance on loving you

If you were a sailboat

If I was hungry you would feed me _____ you would lead me to the light

If I was a book I know you'd read me every night

If you were a cowboy, I would trail you

If I was in darkness

If you were a piece of wood, _____

If you were a sailboat I would sail you to the shore

_____ I would sail you to the shore

I'd nail you to the floor
