Dictation lesson 3: smartphones

Listen and complete.

Woman: Hey. Uh, you look really unhappy. What's going on?

Young Man: Ah, you don't want to know.

Woman: Okay, see ya.

Young Man: Wait, wait, wait! Why are you (1) .....?

Woman: Well, you said I didn't want to know.

Young Man: No, wait. You see my parents really don't love me.

Woman: What do you mean? When I met them last week, they (2) .....

Young Man: Uh, you don't understand! You see. I want a new (3) ..... . . . I mean, I need one, and my parents won't buy me it!

Woman: Uh, excuse me, but uh, don't you already have a iPhone?

Young Man: Man, yeah, but it's three months old, and it has (4) ..... on it.

Woman: Where? Let me see. [Look!] I don't see a scratch.

Young Man: Look, look right here!. [THAT?] [Do] you see it?

Woman: It's just a (5) .....

Young Man: Anyway. And my other phone . . .

Woman: What? You have two phones?

Young Man: That's (6).....

Woman: So, so, did your parents give you a reason for not buying you a new phone?

Young Man: Not a good one. Only something about being (7) ..... and not being so entitled, or something like that. And now they want me to work . . . on the neighbor's farm to pay for it. [Good idea!] It's not fair.

Woman: Hey, I think I know the problem. [What?] Take a look (8) ..... You'll see both the problem and the solution.

Young Man: Uh! (9) ..... .
