Personal pronouns

1. Choose the right answer.

In high school John and he / his brother liked snow days a lot. The school was closed, so they / their got an extra holiday. Why? Because school buses didn't run and the teachers couldn't get to they / their work. "You / Your could go out and play out with you / your friends all day, " John says. "We / Our often earned some money by helping we / our neighbours with the snow. Mom is a teacher and she / her stayed at home, too. I / My like cooking and was sometimes she / her little helper in the kitchen. "But John didn't like snow days in June - school lasted as many days longer as they had had snow days in winter.
