

NAME AND SURNAME: _____

1. Match the term with its definition:

Key signature	Accidental that cancels the effect of a sharp or a flat
Natural	Set of accidentals written at the start of the stave after the clef
Leader	Hall in a palace where musicians performed music
Chamber	First violinist or soloist violinist

2. Match each column with its pair:

Traditional music	It covers an enormous number of compositions from the Middle Ages to the present day
Popular urban music	It was born in cities in the mid-20 th century
Classical music	It belongs to each regional or ethnic group. It is transmitted in an orally way

3. Click on the correct sentences about classical music:

- Classical music is transmitted orally.
- The composer is usually anonymous.
- It's performed by professional musicians.
- It's complex and easy to memorise.

4. Drag and drop. Complete the table using the boxes. Match the sentence with the kind of music which is represented by.

It's complex and difficult to memorise	It's was born in cities in the mid-20 th century	It's was born in the religious environment of monasteries	It's usually performed by amateur musicians

Popular urban music

Classical music

Classical music

Popular urban music

5. Match the term with its definition:

Natural	It shows that the pitch of a note is a semitone lower
Sharp	It cancels the effect of a sharp or a flat
Flat	It shows that the pitch of a note is a semitone higher