Reading Passage 1

Read the joke.

Last week, Vicky, a distressed wife, went to the local police station in Wigan, Lancashire, along with her next-door neighbor, Pauline, to report that her husband was missing.

The policeman asked for a description of the missing man.

Vicky described him clearly and in detail, "He is 35 years, 6 feet 4 inches, has dark eyes, dark wavy hair, an athletic build, weighs 185 pounds, is softly-spoken and is fabulous with the children."

Pauline interrupts her protesting, "Why Vicky, your husband is 5 feet 8 inches, overweight, bald, has a big mouth, and is horrid to your children."

Vicky replied, with sigh, "Yes, but who wants HIM back?"

11. Which of the following statement is TRUE?
- Pauline is an honest woman.
 - Vicky is accurate in describing her husband's appearance.
 - Vicky's husband is an attractive man.
 - The policeman knows Vicky and her husband well.

Reading Passage 2

Paul Nelson graduated from university and went to work overseas for a year. When he returned to his hometown, a big company offered him a very good position with a reasonably high salary. He accepted the job, but finally became bored with it and wanted to do something more challenging. Therefore, he put an advertisement in several newspapers, describing his work experience, his present responsibilities and the kind of work he was interested in.

Several days later, he got a letter in response to his advertisement. The letter was not from a firm, but from a man who wanted a job. In his letter he wrote: "Sir, could you be kind enough to mention my name to your present employer when you get a new job?"
