

Transition Vocabulary

Section I

Directions: Match the underlined word to the definition below

1.  Billy's abilities to sing and play the guitar make him a great music teacher.
  2.  I use a calculator as an accommodation in my math and science classes.
  3.  Jordan took an assessment to demonstrate that he understands how to use a computer program.
  4.  Cam is an auditory learner, so he chooses to learn about cooking by listening to podcasts.
  5.  Alice faces transportation barriers because she is not able to drive.
-
- a.  A tool that gives information about a person's skills or abilities
  - b.  A change made to the way a task is completed or how an environment is accessed in order to provide support to a student
  - c.  The skills that someone has
  - d.  Obstacle a person faces
  - e.  A person who learns best by hearing and listening

Section II

Directions: Match the definition to the word below.

1.  Something positive that you gain from an experience
2.  A program in Tennessee that educates you on how getting a job can impact your SSI benefits
3.  A job that someone has for an extended period of their life
4.  A law that guarantees rights for a person with a disability

5.  To give or receive information through talking, listening, body language, or written formats like emails.

a.  Americans with Disabilities Act(ADA)

b.  Benefits to work

c.  Communicate

d.  Benefits

e.  Career