

6th level Social Science

UNIT 5: A Century of Great Change

1. In 1931, the _____ (republicans/democrats) won the elections and established a _____ (monarchy/democracy). Choose the correct word choice and WRITE the correct answers.

2. The Spanish Civil War was lead by which generals? Click the correct answer.

Alonso XIII and Franco

Only Franco

Sanjuro, Mola and Franco

Donald Trump

3. After Franco's rule, Spain transitioned from a _____ to a _____.
Click the correct answer.

Kingdom, Society

Monarchy,
Democracy

Dictatorship,
Democracy

Dictatorship,
Republic

4. Organize these facts into the correct date placements.

1902:

1923:

1931:

1936

1939-75:

1977:

1978:

Parties to boycott election

From Madrid
Despite political parties in Spain's parliament have decided to boycott the parliamentary elections on February 15, despite political compromise announced following by President Franco's death.

The opposition President said in a statement that the election would help usher in democratic civilian rule. The three and a half-year-old military dictatorship would be replaced by a new Parliament began its first session.

General Francisco Franco said that the fundamental rights suspended in 1939, would now be restored. Parties would enjoy freedom of speech, religion, and property.

The President also stressed the necessity for the government of Madrid and the regional political authorities would be supported by parliamentary rule. Various political parties would now be able to hold power within without government.

It also announced privileges for the military forces in their role of maintaining the order and protecting the president and government. The president and government of each nation would be sure.

Spain starts a new era

King Juan Carlos signs Spain's new Constitution while his son and the Cortes President look on.

From Madrid
King Juan Carlos yesterday signed Spain's democratic Constitution before a joint session of the Cortes.

It was the final act in the complex process which transformed Spain from a dictatorship to a parliamentary democracy in three years. The historic ceremony lasted an hour. It started at 12.30 as was the King in Captain General's uniform. He had high military rank, Queen Sofia, and they sat the Prince of the Asturias, arrived at the ceremony.

After the Vice President, Adolfo Suárez, accompanied by the Chief of Government, signed a document of historical importance. The King, accompanied by the Vice President, signed the document. The document was signed by the King, the Vice President, the Prime Minister, the President of the Cortes, and the President of the Senate.

The signing ceremony was held in the Cortes, the Spanish parliament, in Madrid. The ceremony was attended by many guests, including the President of the United States, Gerald R. Ford, and the President of France, Valéry Giscard d'Estaing.

50,000 strike in China

From Beijing in Peking
Approximately 50,000 students have been called out on strike in South China in a mass revolt against forced labor.

A group of their leaders said yesterday of the strike in a letter to the Chinese government. The letter said that the strike was called on December 10 by representatives of the students and it was an armed strike. The strike was called in response to the government's decision to force students to work on farms and in factories.

The strike, according to the letter, was a protest against the way Chinese youth were being treated. The letter said that the strike was called in response to the government's decision to force students to work on farms and in factories.

The letter also said that the strike was called in response to the government's decision to force students to work on farms and in factories. The letter said that the strike was called in response to the government's decision to force students to work on farms and in factories.

GOOD JOB!!! STAY SAFE AND HEALTHY EVERYONE

