Conditionals, conditionals, conditionals

Match the first part of the sentence to the second one. To make it easier, check the tenses used in each one to help you understand which type of conditional you are dealing with.

1. Plants die ...		it turns into ice.
2. If you mix yellow and blue...		if she hadn't got up so late.
3. When I go to be early...		the marks will be quite low.
4. If people don't eat healthy...		I would have to call a locksmith.
5. If water reaches 0° C...		you get green
6. I will be very happy...		she won't allow her to go out next Friday.
7. If she doesn't say sorry to her mother...		if she practised more.
8. My parents will buy a new car...		they can't be fit.
9. If the exam is very difficult...		if they had another baby.
10. The party won't be a success...		if we hadn't had exams on Monday.
11. If I lost my keys....		if they don't get water regularly.
12. My friend would tell the teacher....		he could have died.
13. They would move to a		unless they play good

LIVEWORKSHEETS

bigger house...		music at it.
14. If I lived in America		if he didn't understand the exercise.
15. She would be a professional basketball player...		if you can come to my birthday party.
16. I would have been very sad...		I wouldn't have been able to study at school.
17. We would have gone to Salamanca for the weekend..		I would speak native English.
18. If I had lived in the 17th century...		I feel so energetic in the morning.
19. If he hadn't worn a helmet...		if I hadn't passed my exams.
20. She would have arrived on time...		if they save the money for it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS