Gerund or Infinitive

I. Put the verbs in brackets into the correct form.

Denis: Do you fancy _____ (go) to the cinema tomorrow?

Martha: What film is on?

Denis: "Mission: Impossible – Fallout". It's really worth _____ (see) Tom Cruise performing all the dangerous tricks himself. I'm looking forward to _____ (watch) the film. Would you like _____ (join) me?

Martha: I'm afraid I can't . I have to _____ (look) after my little sister tomorrow. Moreover, I prefer _____ (watch) comedies and romantic films. Why don't you ask Mark? I think he will be glad _____ (see) this action film with you.

Denis: Mark is busy _____ (work) on his Chemistry project this week. You know, he wants _____ (win) the Chemistry Olympiad and _____ (go) to the conference in New York. I think he's clever enough _____ (realise) his plan

Martha: Yes, he's keen on _____ (ask) Mark for help after the Olympiad.

Denis: Well, I'd prefer _____ (go) to the cinema with somebody so perhaps I'll take my younger brother. He'll be happy _____(join) me.

Martha: Enjoy yourselves!

2. Make up sentences. Add articles and prepositions if necessary.

Model: Henry / hope / get / main role / film / .

Henry hopes to get the main role in the film.

1. you / fancy / watch / series / tonight / ?
2. my mum / not mind / watch / horror films / .
3. I / be fortunate / meet / Julia Roberts / conference / last week/ .
4. Joanne Rowling's books / be worth / read / .
5. you / decide / become / film maker / ?
6. children / look forward to / visit / Warner Bros. Studios / London /.
7. Jim / have to / save / his pocket money / go / cinema/ .