

Must/mustn't/not have to

- We use must to talk about rules (like have to) and to talk about what we feel obliged to do.

My room is a mess. I must tidy it.

- We use mustn't to talk about things we are not allowed to do.
You mustn't walk on the grass.
- We use not have to to talk about things we are not obliged to do.
You don't have to wear a uniform.

Circle the correct verb form.

You mustn't/don't have to wear a uniform in this school. You can wear your own clothes.

In Australia you mustn't/don't have to drive on the right.

If you drink alcohol, you mustn't/don't have to drive.

We mustn't/don't have to hurry: we're not late.

We mustn't/don't have to run in here: it's forbidden.

He mustn't/doesn't have to walk to school. His mum usually takes him to school.

She mustn't/doesn't have to eat nuts. She is allergic to them.

What are the rules in a school outing?Write sentences with these phrases.

talk loudly in museums We mustn't talk loudly in museums.

make noise at night

wear yellow pyjamas

eat on the bus

bring a camera

send postcards to the head teacher

go somewhere alone