- He's unavailable at present.
- I finish the course at the end of April.
- We arrived at the same time.

Exercise 1:

Talking about where things are

Phil is staying in Diana's house. Read her letter to him, and use the picture of her kitchen to add the correct prepositions.

Help yourself means
'take what you want'

WORD
FOCUS

Dear Phil,

I hope you enjoy your week in Norfolk.
Please use the food <sup>0</sup> in my kitchen.
There's a bag of potatoes <sup>1</sup> the table.
They're from my garden. There's a loaf of brown bread <sup>2</sup> a small cupboard <sup>3</sup> the fridge. I made it myself two days ago. I hope you like it. There's also a tin of biscuits <sup>4</sup> the table, and some fruit <sup>5</sup> the biscuits. Help yourself!
And you'll find some vegetables under the window <sup>6</sup> the back of the kitchen.
They're not from my garden. They're from a local farm. Finally, if you look through the window, you'll see some apple trees <sup>7</sup>
the garden. The apples are delicious!
Best wishes,
Diana

Exercise 2:

Talking about travel

Luke, Angie and Dave are on holiday in Goa. Luke and Angie are taking a local bus. Add the correct prepositions to their conversation.

ANGIE It's a lovely day, isn't it?

LUKE Of course. You're <sup>0</sup> in (at/in) India now, not England.

ANGIE That's true. Are we going to get off the bus <sup>1</sup> (at/in) Sammi's café?

LUKE OK. We could ring Dave, and have a picnic <sup>2</sup> (on/in) the beach this afternoon.

ANGIE Good idea. (She takes out her mobile phone.) Dave? Hi! Luke and I are <sup>3</sup> (at/on) the bus. Shall we meet later for a beach picnic? Excellent! I'll give you a ring.

Exercise 3:

We use prepositions to talk about where people and things are; and to talk about travel, time, dates, and days. Leo is writing to his sister from a campsite in Italy. First, look at this picture of the campsite and the photo. Then add the correct prepositions.

Hi Sara!

We're looking forward to seeing you next Sunday at <sup>0</sup> (under/at/above) the campsite. We're having a good time. Sam and I run in <sup>1</sup> (until/at/in) the mornings. Anna swims in <sup>2</sup> (in/on/under) the pool, and Eve gets croissants for our breakfast from <sup>3</sup> (on/at/to) a baker's in town. Then from about ten o'clock until <sup>4</sup> (from/till/at) lunch, we do what we want. There's a wood behind <sup>5</sup> (above/from/behind) the campsite, so sometimes I go for a walk. We normally have lunch at <sup>6</sup> (at/to/on) one o'clock, and then we go in <sup>7</sup> (in/at/on) the car to the seaside. Sometimes we have a picnic on <sup>8</sup> (above/on/in) the beach, or we drive to one of the towns or cities nearby. From <sup>9</sup> (At/On/From) the moment, I'm emailing you from an internet café in <sup>10</sup> (under/on/in) Perpignan. At <sup>11</sup> (On/In/At) night, we cook a meal. I've attached a photo of our kitchen! On <sup>12</sup> (On/In/At) the photo you can see there's a small fridge under <sup>13</sup> (under/behind/above) the table, and there are lots of pots and pans on <sup>14</sup> (under/on/above) the cooker! The weather is beautiful now, but the campsite manager says there was snow a month ago in <sup>15</sup> (in/on/at) Easter!

See you soon, Leo
