

It's a strap around an animal's neck that is used to attach a lead.

a collar

It's the rope or other material used to stop an animal running away.

a leash

Match the verbs and their explanations.

to bark

to move slowly

to bite

the way of guarding or of keeping others at fear

to howl

to make a short loud sound usually when the dog is angry

to whine

the way the dog swings its tail

to crawl

to make a long loud sound

to wag

to use the mouth and teeth
to hold sth or someone

to growl

to make a high noise usually because the dog wants sth

to walk a dog

to go on a walk with a dog
to take a dog out on a walk

Body Parts

- |            |         |          |              |
|------------|---------|----------|--------------|
| 1. head    | 4. ear  | 7. mouth | 10. tail     |
| 2. body    | 5. eye  | 8. neck  | 11. leg, paw |
| 3. eyebrow | 6. nose | 9. fur   | 12. claw     |

Listen to the extract of the story(pp. 108-109 Student's Book). And decide if the statements are true, false or not stated.

True: _____
False: _____
Not stated: _____

A puppy

claws

the extremity of a dog's spine

paws

a dog's "moustache"

a tail

a dog's nose

a snout

a dog's hair

fur

a dog's nails

whiskers

a dog's feet and hands

1. Weedon couldn't go home because of a serious injury.
2. He wrote a note to his family.
3. White Fang was an Arctic animal.
4. White Fang knew the way home.
5. Weedon was sure that his dog would return soon.
6. White Fang understood all his master's words.
7. White Fang obeyed the master because his voice was very serious and sharp.
8. All the family was happy that White Fang was home.
9. White Fang growled because he didn't like the children.
10. One day White Fang bit the children.
11. Weedon thought that White Fang was a half-dog and a half-wolf.
12. White Fang was growling fiercely because he wanted to eat.
13. The wolf became the centre of attention because he looked funny.
14. The people couldn't understand what the wolf wanted to express.
15. It was hard for White Fang to live in a warm climate.
16. White Fang barked only twice during his life.