Class: Mammalia Kingdom: Animalia Species: Orca Family: Delphinidae Phylum: Chordata Order: Cetacea Organisms able to move around and get energy Genus: Orcinus Organisms that have a backbone from another living thing Organisms that give birth to live young and drink The orca or killer whale is a toothed whale Delphinidae are generally fast, streamlined milk from their mothers belonging to the oceanic dolphin family, animals with a pronounced beak, or rostrum. Cetaceans: Group of marine mammals that Orcinus is a genus of Delphinidae, the family of carnivorous includes whales, dolphins. marine mammals known as dolphins.

