

relative clauses with who or which

1. We stayed in a house on holiday. The house was very old.
2. Mary goes for a walk every evening. She has a new puppy.
3. My grandmother is 82. She works in the garden every day.

4. Tom's new bike is very fast. He got it for his birthday.
5. London is my favourite city. It is the capital of the United Kingdom.
6. Someday I want to visit Edinburgh. It is the capital of Scotland.

7. Ed Sheeran is a great singer and song-writer. He is from England.
8. I will go to his concert. It is in July.
9. Lena is a German singer and song-writer. She won the European Song Contest.
10. I am writing my online friend. She lives in Brazil.

11. We gave my grandpa a birthday party. It was a complete surprise.
12. May I see that book? It is next to you on the table.

13. Where is the boy? I just saw you talk to him.
14. You are a good friend. I can talk to you about anything.
15. My new phone has many new apps. I bought it last week.

16. The town is very friendly. We visited it last month.