

THE PASSIVE VOICE

Passive voice is used when the action is more important than the person or thing doing the action. The agent is usually obvious, unimportant or unknown. It is often found in news and scientific reports, adverts, processes, instructions, polite and formal statements

We form the passive voice with an appropriate tense of the verb TO BE + PAST PARTICIPLE

1. The object of the active becomes the new subject in the passive
- 2.- The passive verb changes into its passive form
- 3.- The subject of the active becomes the by agent

VERB TENSE	ACTIVE VOICE	PASSIVE VOICE
