

Describing pictures

Instructions: Listen to four people describing pictures. Complete the gaps with the words that you hear.

_____ a city at night. It seems to be quite a busy street. We can see two traditional taxis on the right side of the picture, and _____, a bicycle taxi. _____ to be a woman who is taking passenger in a taxi. On the left side of the street, there are many Chinese shops, so it's probably Chinatown. _____, we can see some restaurants and people walking.

This is a picture of a woman who _____ shopping in a market. It looks _____ she is looking for honey or oil which are on sale on the stalls. The woman has a very ... _____ an interesting appearance. She has an interesting headdress and very eye-catching eye make-up as well. She is in _____ to be a city center, as the market looks quite busy.

Ok, so this picture shows a waiter _____ of the street and it seems that he is giving out samples. And there's four girls, and they are all dressed in black with long trousers and tights and big boots, big black boots with studs on them. So _____ that it's some time of winter or autumn cause they are wearing coats. And, _____, he is giving out samples, it looks like it's fish, so maybe it's some kind of grill, cause it has a grill here. It's some kind of grilled fish restaurant of some kind.

This picture shows a group of ladies shopping in a market. _____ are other shoppers, and in front of them _____ lots of accessories to wear, like necklaces and earrings and bracelets. The only thing _____ unusual or that makes them _____ from the rest of the shoppers is that these ladies are completely covered from head to toe, and they're wearing burkas. I think that they are just having an outing into the market to shop for some new accessories.