King Lear: pages: 13-18

Choose True or False

1. King Lear had three daughters: Goneril, Megan and Cordelia.

2. As he was old, he wanted to retire from government.

3. He decided to divide his kingdom equally among his daughters.

5. His two elder daughters were truthfully grateful.

4. Cordelia realized they were insincere.

5. As she could not express her true love, she was deprived of her share of the kingdom.

6. Lear would keep the title of king and have a hundred servants to wait on him.

7. The Earl of Kent spoke in favour of Cordelia.

8. As a result, he was banished from the kingdom.

9. Cordelia became the Queen of France.

10. King Lear had a pleasant, comfortable stay at Goneril's palace.

11. Caius was the Earl of Kent dressed as a servant.

12. Caius and the fool served Lear loyally.

13. Goneril told her father he could keep on staying at her palace as long as he cut down on his number of soldiers.

14. Lear gave in to his daughter's commands to secure his stay at her palace.

15. Lear was heart-broken at Cordelia's ill-treatment of him.

LIVEWORKSHEETS