It's An Earthquake!

In the Natural History Museum* in London there is a special "Earthquake*" Room". In this room there are videos of earthquakes around the world. There is also a special "Earthquake Machine*". When you stand in it, you feel like you are in a real earthquake. It's not dangerous, but it's scary!

Ann and Ben are at the Natural History Museum.

Ann: Ooh ... look at that room over there. It looks like* a supermarket. Let's go in.

Ben: Wait! This sign says "Earthquake Machine". What do you think it is?

Guide: It shows you what a real earthquake is like. Do you want to go in?

Ben: OK. Let's go, Ann. ... Hey! What's happening?

Ann: The floor is moving! It's an earthquake! HELP!

Ben: Look at the boxes on the shelves. They're falling off!

Ann: And the supermarket carts* are all moving, too. Help! I'm falling!

Ben: Don't worry. It's stopping now.

Ann: Wow, that was scary! Let's get out of here before it starts again.

Ben: Where can we go now? What can we look at next?

Ann: I know. Let's go look at some nice, safe dinosaurs ...
