Unseen Passage

Read the story and answer the following question. Put R for right in correct answer.

Helen Keller was a popular teacher and a famous author.
She became deaf and blind when she was only 19 months old. Her teacher Anne Sullivan taught her to read. She did so by spelling out words on Helen's palm. Anne also taught Helen to touch a speaker's lips and understand what was being said. Later Helen learnt to read books with the help of Braille. She went on to obtain a graduate degree. Her writings have inspired many differently-a led people to overcome difficulties. People who are unable to use one or more of their senses are called 'differently-abled'.
