King Lear: pages: 19-24

Number these events

- [ ] Caius was beaten publicly and tied up in the square.
- [ ] Lear started showing signs of insanity.
- [ ] Goneril's husband put her in prison, where she committed suicide.
- [ ] Regan advised her father to go back to Goneril's home with half his army.
- [ ] Goneril and Regan fell in love with Edmund, the natural son of the dead Earl of Gloucester.
- [ ] Both Lear and Goneril sent letters to Regan about the king's prompt arrival.
- [ ] Lear died soon after Cordelia's murder.
- [ ] Goneril stated that he required no soldiers as her servants could see to his needs.
- [ ] The Earl of Kent hurried to France to seek Cordelia's help.
- [ ] Goneril's husband, the Duke of Albany, was crowned King of England.
- [ ] The two messengers arrived simultaneously.
- [ ] Lear and Cordelia met and the king asked for his daughter's forgiveness.
- [ ] The Earl of Kent died of sorrow.
- [ ] Regan affirmed that, if her father was to stay with her, he would be allowed to keep twenty-five soldiers.
- [ ] Goneril poisoned Regan.
- [ ] Lear was astounded to see Goneril at her sister's palace.
- [ ] Lear went out in the middle of a wild storm.
- [ ] Regan became a widow and intended to marry Edmund.
- [ ] Cordelia was taken prisoner and killed by her sisters' armies.
- [ ] Edmund was killed in a fight with his brother.

LIVEWORKSHEETS