Now you're just somebody that I used to know

Now you're just somebody that I used to know

Now you're just somebody that I used to know

But you didn't have to cut me off

Make out like it never happened and that we were nothing. And I don't even need your love. But you treat me like a stranger and that feels so rough

Now and then, I think of all the times you screwed me over

But had me believing it was always something that I'd done

But I don't wanna live that way

Reading into every word you say

You said that you could let it go

And I wouldn't catch, you hung up on

Somebody that you used to know

You can get addicted to a certain kind of sadness

Like resignation to the end, always the end

So when we found that we could not make sense

Well, you said that we would still be friends

But I'll admit that I was glad it was over

Now and then I think of when we were together

Like when you said you felt so happy you could die. Told myself that you were right for me. But felt so lonely in your company

But that was love and it's an ache I still remember

No, you didn't have to stoop so low

Have your friends collect your records

And then change your number. I guess that I don't need that though
