

I'm writing this letter to tell you about my last birthday

Dear Aunt Helen,

The most amazing bicycle I had ever seen!!

Write to me soon,

We had breakfast in the garden

Freddy

May, 14th

I couldn't see a thing!

Manchester, England

Hello! How are you, Uncle Paul and my cousins doing? Here, we are very well. My mom is working and my dad is preparing a new project for his job.

because you couldn't be here and because it was INCREDIBLE.

My day began with a fabulous breakfast that mum and dad prepared for me. There were all my favorite things: French toasts, cereals, fruit, orange juice, jam, nuts and almonds. It was awesome!!!

and then my dad said that they had a surprise for me. I couldn't wait! I was so nervous! He brought a handkerchief from my mother and covered my eyes.

Then, they took my hands and guided me towards the garage. When we were there, they unfold my eyes and there it was!!!! It was black and silver with some cool stickers. One of them had my name on it!! I couldn't believe my eyes!!

I hugged them both and thanked them for such a glorious present. Then I came close to the bike and tried it. WOW!! It was just perfect. In the afternoon, I celebrated with my friends and blew the candles, but the morning moment was, without questions, the best part of my birthday. I have to go now auntie. The school bus is waiting. I miss you!

