

UNIT 5. PREHISTORY

① Complete the Prehistory timeline. Use the words in the box.

Bronze Age Metal Ages Mesolithic Iron Age
Copper Age Stone Age Palaeolithic Neolithic

c. 2500000 – 10000 BC	c. 10000 – 5500 BC	c. 5500 – 2500 BC	c. 2500 – 1700 BC	c. 1700 – 800 BC	c. 800 – 218 BC

② Look at the chart about the Stone Age. Mark the correct period.

	Palaeolithic Period	Mesolithic Period	Neolithic Period
The beginning of sedentary life.			✓
The beginning of human history.
The transition period of the Stone Age.
People learned to use fire.
People cultivated crops and domesticated animals.
Housing was temporary. People lived in caves.
Farming tools were invented.
Stone, bone and wood were used to make simple tools.

③ Complete the texts about the Metal Ages.

bronze quality hill forts tasks weapons gold
~~copper~~ stronger settlements

Copper Age

People used copper to make _____ and tools. Communities divided up _____. - farmers grew crops, metal workers made tools and weapons.

Bronze Age

People learned how to melt and shape _____. This made weapons _____ than ever before.

Iron Age

Harder and better _____ weapons and tools were made using iron, _____ and silver were used to make coins and jewellery. Larger _____ made up of houses and large _____ were built.

④ Compare the Celts and the Iberians. Mark the correct option.

- a. They were metalworkers and farmers.
- b. They made megaliths for burials.
- c. They lived in rural villages.
- d. They made sculptures.
- e. They were fierce warriors.
- f. They lived in urban settlements with stone streets.

Celts / Iberians / Celts and Iberians

Celts / Iberians / Celts and Iberians

Celts / Iberians / Celts and Iberians

Celts / Iberians / Celts and Iberians

Celts / Iberians / Celts and Iberians

Celts / Iberians / Celts and Iberians

⑤ Use two boxes to complete correct sentences about the Celts.

...round houses...	...strong weapons,...	...farming and...	...castros, which were built...
...warriors and...	...on hills to prevent...	...during the Iron...	...across Europe...
...and made...	...made of stone...	...food through...	...very resistant against...

- a. The Celts spread across Europe during the Iron Age.
- b. The Celts lived in villages called surprise attacks.
- c. They lived in and straw.
- d. They produced their own rearing animals.
- e. They were fierce invaders.
- f. There were excellent jewellery and coins.

⑥ Complete the boxes with the names of the sculpture and which tribe made them.

a

Name: _____

They were made by:

b

Name: _____

They were made by:

c

Name: _____

It was made by:
