My rematch experience

I arrived in Washington dc in January 2019, at the begin everything was great, my host parents were friendly and my host kid loved me. I had my bathroom and my room on the second floor. I also had au pair of friends near to me, so every weekend I went to have fun with them.

Everything changed in May, my host mom started to feel sad because she wasn't spending time with her son, that is why she decided to quit her job and dedicate more time to her baby. To be honest with you, that notice broke my heart, because I liked them and I wanted to stay for at least 2 years with them, but on the other hand, I do understand my host mom because her job was hard, that is why, I had to be on a rematch, but at the end, I found a wonderful family on Tucson.
