MAN-MADE FEATURES

Exercise 1. Read the sentences and write True or False

1. The transformations people make to natural landscapes are called man-made features
2. Transports are an example of man-made features
3. A bridge is an example of natural features
4. Construction, land exploitation and mountain ranges are man-made features.
5. A natural landscape doesn't have man-made features
Exercise 2. Complete the sentences with the words in the box Exercise 2. Complete the sentences with the words in the box  villages travel farms mines store motorways energy villages travel farms mines store motorways energy  • In our , towns or cities there are structures such as hospitals,
villages travel farms mines store motorways energy  • In our , towns or cities there are structures such as hospitals, schools, shops and other services.
<ul> <li>villages travel farms mines store motorways energy</li> <li>In our, towns or cities there are structures such as hospitals, schools, shops and other services.</li> <li>, dams and power stations provide people with</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>villages travel farms mines store motorways energy</li> <li>In our, towns or cities there are structures such as hospitals, schools, shops and other services.</li> <li>, dams and power stations provide people with</li> <li>Factories and provide people with food and other products.</li> </ul>

Exercise 3. Match the environmental problem with their cause.

- 1. Deforestation
- 2. Climate Change
- 3. Pollution

- a) industrial waste
- b) cutting down trees
- c) using fossil fuels

