Listen & Speak ①

1.

G: What are you doing this weekend?
B: I'm thinking of doing some volunteer work at the child-care center.
G: What would you do there?
B: I would probably read some books to the children.
G: That sounds interesting. Can I join you?
B: Of course.

2.

B: What are you going to read for the book review homework?
G: I'm thinking of reading a book about young leaders.
B: Good idea. I have the perfect book for you.
G: Oh, could you lend it to me?
B: Sure. I'll bring it tomorrow.

Listen & Speak 2

1.

G: Dad, I'm a bit hungry. Is there anything to eat?
M: Do you want me to cook tteokbokki for you?
G: That'd be great. I love tteokbokki.
M: O.K. Give me a few minutes.

2.

B: Sujin, can you help us?
G: Sure. What can I do for you?
B: We're going to ask the school to make a parking space for bicycles.
G: That's a great idea. Do you want me to help you collect signatures from students?
B: That would help us a lot. Thanks!

Communicate

Suho: Anna, do you have any children's books you don't read any longer?
Anna: Sure. Why?
Suho: I'm thinking of sending some books to children in Africa. My aunt told me that they need books to read.
Anna: Good idea, Suho! Wait, aren't your books in Korean?
Suho: Oh, that's a problem.
Anna: Well, how about translating them into English?
Suho: Translating? That's a great idea, Anna.
Anna: Do you want me to help you?
Suho: Sure. If we run into any difficult expressions, let's ask our English teacher for help.
Anna: O.K. It's really great that we can help the children in Africa.
