When they arrived at the park, Nisa and her little sister ran to play on the swings. Her mother and her older sister set up the picnic. Nisa and her little sister played on the swings. She swung her legs backwards and forwards. She felt the wind on her face.

Nisa felt happy to be in the fresh air. It was quiet. She could hear frogs croaking and birds chirping. Nisa looked around at the ground. There was rubbish on the ground. This made Nisa feel sad. She remembered how important it is to keep the jungle habitat clean for the animals that live there.

1. What did Nisa and her sister do first when they got to the park?

2. What did Nisa's mother and older sister do?

3. How did Nisa move herself on the swing?

4. Why did Nisa feel happy?

5. What could Nisa hear?

6. Why did Nisa feel sad when she looked down at the ground?
