

A Read the newspaper report. Then complete the table with the suitable grammar items from the report. Follow the example given.

JAKARTA: A terrifying thunderstorm hit Kampung Hijau at about 3.00 a.m. when the villagers were still asleep. The strong winds uprooted many trees. The river overflowed its banks and many goats and poultry drowned. Many houses were damaged. Upon receiving a distress call, firemen and army volunteers arrived at the village within minutes to clear the fallen trees, and to ferry the people whose homes had been damaged to a relief centre.

Emergency Problems
Adjective	Noun	Verb
terrifying	thunderstorm	hit
	winds	uprooted
many		drowned
many	houses

B Complete the sentences with suitable words or phrases from the newspaper report.

1. A terrifying thunderstorm _____ Kampung Hijau in the wee hours of the morning.
2. The strong winds _____ many trees.
3. Many goats and poultry _____ when the river _____.
4. The firemen and army volunteers received a _____.
5. The people whose homes were _____ were taken to a relief centre.

C Match the words that have the same meaning.

- 1 hit *
- 2 uprooted *
- 3 damaged *
- 4 arrived *
- 5 cleared *
- 6 relief *

- a destroyed
- b help
- c removed
- d struck
- e reached
- f displaced

Read the poster on a public noticeboard and answer the questions that follow.

Make Bandar Tasik Town a Safer Place To Live

Everyone can play a role. Contact the authority concerned if you encounter such incidents as listed below:

- Public swimming pool – child having difficulty in water – call Lifeguard
- Uprooted trees – call Town Council
- Bush fire – call Fire Brigade
- Big potholes on road – call Town Council
- Big snake inside house – call Fire Brigade
- Home accident – call Ambulance
- Power cut – call National Energy Board (TNB)
- Water cut – call Waterworks Department (Jabatan Air)

What to say when you call:

- Give your name
- Say where you are calling from
- State the problem
- Speak politely

For further enquiries, please visit our website at www.bandartasiktowncouncil.com.my.

Circle the correct answer.

- I. Why do you think this poster was put up?
 - A To make known the problems
 - B To promote services
 - C To assist people
 - D To persuade people

2. Which statement is true?
- A A policeman can handle pest problems.
 - B A town council worker can do road repairs.
 - C A lifeguard can handle water cut problems.
 - D A fireman can send the sick to the hospital.

Find the correct word or phrase from the poster to complete the sentences.

3. Motorcyclists can fall and suffer serious injuries if they ride over the _____
_____.
4. It is best to call for an _____ if someone at home is _____.
5. If the whole neighbourhood is in darkness because of _____,
inform the National Energy Board.

Based on the poster, write your answers.

6. What does a lifeguard do?

7. Name any four kinds of occupations that offer emergency services to the public.

HOTS

- (a) _____ (b) _____
(c) _____ (d) _____

8. Of all the services mentioned in the poster, which particular one amazes you? Why?

HOTS

A In each sentence, a word is missing. Use a slash (/) to show where to place the missing word. Then write the sentence with the correct missing word from the box. Each word is used twice. Circle to indicate if the word functions as a verb or a noun.

catch ✕ talk ✕ care ✕ kick

Example:

1. Our parents / about us.

Our parents care about us.

verb ✕ noun

2. Please don't the cat.

verb ✕ noun

3. Our school counsellor will give a to the students.

verb ✕ noun

4. The man gave the burglar a hard.

verb ✕ noun

5. We must not when our teacher is teaching.

verb ✕ noun

6. Don't ever a crab with your bare hands.

verb ✕ noun

7. The nurse showed great for her patients.

verb ✕ noun

8. We went fishing and had a good.

verb ✕ noun

B Read and match.

1 Benny was sleeping downstairs *

2 The snail was crawling slowly *

3 My mother was cooking on the electric stove *

4 I was crossing the road *

5 What were you doing when the phone rang? *

6 What were you doing when the lights went out? *

* a when the power got cut off.

* b The lights went out while I was having dinner.

* c when his father came home.

* d when a motorcyclist almost hit me.

* e when I accidentally stepped on it.

* f It rang while I was reading.

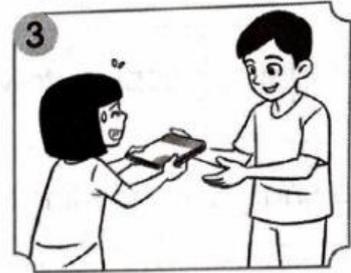

Textbook: p. 15 → Adjectives ending with -ing or -ed

C Fill in the blanks with the correct form of adjective by adding -ing or -ed.

Example: The news was depressing. We felt depressed.

1. The ride was _____. I was tired.
2. The movie was _____. We felt bored.
3. The news was _____. The people were greatly saddened.
4. The question was confusing. The students were _____.
5. The dog show is exciting. The audience are _____.
6. Belinda's art is amazing. Her friends are _____.
7. My sister's words are comforting. I feel _____.
8. Our team captain is so timid and discouraging. We feel _____.
9. The movie was _____. We were disappointed.
10. My brother is _____. I get annoyed when he is around.

A Based on the pictures, complete the story with the words given.

forgave ♦ spilled ♦ read ♦ asked ♦ sipping ♦ afraid ♦ admit ♦ flew ♦ honest ♦ tore

One Sunday afternoon, Lily sat down to 1 _____ her brother's new story book. When she was 2 _____ her drink, a fly 3 _____ past her. She tried to shoo the fly away, but she was not careful, and she 4 _____ her drink on the open page. Lily was 5 _____ to tell her brother so she 6 _____ the page off.

A few weeks later, when Lily's brother was reading the storybook, he 7 _____ Lily about the missing page. Lily said sorry, and her brother 8 _____ her. Lily realised that if she made a mistake, she must take responsibility by being 9 _____ enough to 10 _____ her mistake.