2. Mario doesn't want to see an action film. .....
3. Mario and Tamara will see the film at 7.30. .....
4. Mario will pick Tamara up at her house. .....

II. READING (2 points)

Task 1. Read the passage. Tick (√) T (True) or F (False) for each sentence.

Transport in London is expensive. The fare depends on the length of the journey; you cannot buy or book tickets in advance. Children under sixteen pay half, and those under five travel free.

You usually buy bus tickets from the conductor, but some buses you pay the driver. Most London buses are double-deckers. On the underground railway (or tube) you buy your ticket from the machine or ticket office and give it up at the end of the journey. Not all trains from one platform go to the same place, so watch the signs. The last train leaves at 1.15 p.m.

		T	F
1.	The fare of public transport depends on the distance of the journey.
2.	Children under five don't have to pay when they use public transport.
3.	You usually buy railway tickets from the driver.
4.	All trains from one platform go to the same place.

Task 2. Read the text below and circle the best option (A, B or C) to complete the statement

LIVEWORKSHEETS

The Academy Awards, commonly known as the Oscars, are the most famous film awards in the world. They have been held since 1929. They are called the Oscars after the golden statuette awarded to the winners. The Oscar statuette is officially called the Academy Award of Merit. It is 34 cm high and weighs 3.85 kilos. The Oscar statuette was designed by Cedric Gibbons and sculpted by George Stanley. It is a knight holding a crusader's sword, standing on a reel of film. The first Oscar was given to Emil Jannings on May 16, 1929. The most important Oscar is the "Best Picture" prize, which is given to the best film. Two other important awards are "Best Actor" and "Best Actress" in a leading role.
