On Planet Braincloud

Noi finally landed on Planet Braincloud. The first thing he tried to do was to call home. Unfortunately, it wasn't possible. He then asked Rosie if he could borrow her phone to take pictures of their very short visit to Planet Braincloud. The plan was to stay for about 24 hours, find a GPS, and then return to Planet Earth.

Rosie showed Noi Robby's room. It was exactly the way Robby had described it. There were three sets of bunk beds. Also, Noi met Robby's four older brothers. They were on spring break from university. Each was studying in a different field: Biology, Geology, Musicology, and Zoology. Noi, the joker, asked them if they knew what Noi-ology was.

Noi also met Bobbie and Robby's grandparents and great-grandparents. The trip to Braincloud went very quickly, and Noi continued to miss his pizza. There was none on Planet Braincloud!

It was soon time for the long trip back to Planet Earth. Roger and Rosie thought it would be a good idea for Noi to sleep all the way back. They showed him a special room where he could sleep during the trip. Noi decided to give the room a try, but not before he asked Rosie to sing him his favourite goodnight song, Twinkle Twinkle.
