

UNIT 7: GRAMMAR- WORKBOOK

(PAGE 74)

Classify the words in the box.

juice	penguin	tomato	meat	money	panda
insect	biscuit	water	grass	apple	rice

Countable	Uncountable

Complete the sentences with a, an or – (nothing) before each noun.

- 1 Look! There's carrot under your desk.
- 2 Why has Ben got apple in his bag?
- 3 chewing gum is good for your teeth.
- 4 Is there eagle in the zoo?
- 5 I'd like brownie, please.
- 6 We love milk!
- 7 You need butter and sugar to make a cake.
- 8 elephant is mammal.

Match the two columns to make sentences.

- | | | | |
|--------------|---|---|------------------------------|
| Is there any | • | • | an eagle next to the hippo. |
| There aren't | • | • | a biscuit in your lunchbox? |
| Have you got | • | • | rice for dinner? |
| There's | • | • | some tomatoes for the salad. |
| There isn't | • | • | any bananas. |
| There are | • | • | any water. |

Complete the dialogue with some or any.

Leo: Let's make a cake.

Jack: That's a good idea. What have we got?

Leo: Well, there's milk.

Jack: Are there eggs?

Leo: Yes, there are four eggs.

Jack: That's a good start. Is there butter?

Leo: Yes, there is. We've got bananas too.

Jack: OK. Have we got chocolate?

Leo: No, there isn't chocolate. I ate it all last night.

Jack: Leo! Is there sugar?

Leo: Yes, there's brown sugar. Is that OK?

Jack: That's fine. Now where are the spoons?