

Write 150-200 words about your quarantine experience. Here are some questions to help you.

What did you discover about yourself in the past two month of social distancing and home study?

What did you find enjoyable?

What did you find difficult? What did you miss?

What were you happy to miss out on?

What are your conclusions?