

Name: _____ Date: _____ Sec.: _____

Reading Skills

Paul Goes To the Ball

Series I

Instructions: Read each sentence. Mark with an X the correct character for each sentence. (10 pts. each)

	Paul	Walter
1. He always had a good story to tell.
2. He was very rich.
3. He put on another coat to get inside the ball.
4. He put food into the pockets of his coat.
5. He was surprised that his cousin was putting the food into his coat.
6. He was upset that they wouldn't let him in because of his clothes.
7. He was sorry that his cousin wasn't feeling welcome at the ball.

Series II

Instructions: Read each sentence. Match the cause with its corresponding effect. (6 pts. each)

1. Paul was invited to the ball.

Paul sat with his friends and told other good stories.

2. Paul was not accepted in the party.

Walter felt very bad and apologized to Paul.

3. Paul was putting all the food into his pockets.

He went to change his old coat for the new one.

4. Paul told a story about the things he did to be welcome in his house.

Walter was surprised and asked him why he was doing that.

5. Paul felt welcome in the house.

He got ready and wore his old coat.