

Pronouns with Appositives

Practice

When a pronoun is followed by an appositive—a noun that renames the pronoun—choose the correct pronoun form by mentally dropping the appositive.

Subject: We journalists must learn to ask questions.

(We must learn to ask questions.)

Object: The mayor gave an interview to us journalists.

(The mayor gave an interview to us.)

Use I, he, she, we, or they to rename subjects and me, him, her, us, or them to rename objects.

---

For each of these sentences, choose the correct form of the pronoun in parentheses. Then, rewrite the complete sentence correctly.

1. (We, Us) residents of Buffalo are proud of our city.

A: _____

2. Two students, (she, her) and Adam, have been chosen to speak at commencement.

A: _____

3. Careful research had to be done by (we, us) debaters.

A: _____

4. For (we, us) residents of Florida, the gubernatorial election is crucial.

A: _____

5. The audience, consisting of (we, us) comedy lovers, loudly applauded the performers.

A: _____

6. The co-captains, Sally and (I, me), planned our team's strategy carefully.

A: _____

Pronouns with Appositives

Assess

For each of these sentences, choose the correct form of the pronoun in parentheses. Then, rewrite the complete sentence correctly.

1. Beth and (I, me), the students with the highest grades, have applied to Central University.

A: _____

2. My friends, Will and (she, her), are going with me on the trip.

A: _____

3. Derek, who always lends a hand, was a great help to (we, us) visitors.

A:

4. We would like a send a card to our cousins, Zach and (she, her).

A:

5. Discounts are irresistible to (we, us) bargain shoppers.

A:

6. Two cat owners, Ms. Hollis and (he, him), won best-in-show honors.

A: _____

7. Sore joints are common among (we, us) distance runners.

A: _____

8. Portia enjoyed the scenery, but it did not particularly interest the other tourists, Sandra and (they, them).

A: _____

9. (We, us) cartoon lovers, Randall and I, love the comic strip "Peanuts."

A: _____

10. The computer experts, Inez and (she, her), will arrive in half an hour.

A: _____