

The animals cheer. "Go Tortoise! Go Hare!" they shout. Tortoise crawls slowly. He's not fast, but he's trying very hard. Hare runs very fast. He runs ahead of Tortoise.

Hare looks back. He can't see Tortoise. He is very far ahead. Hare is sure he can win! Then he sees some grass next to a big tree. He stops to rest under the tree.

Tortoise crawls for a very long time. Finally, he sees Hare under a tree. Hare is taking a nap! Tortoise crawls by quietly. Hare doesn't wake up. Tortoise keeps crawling. He's very tired, but he doesn't stop.

Hare suddenly wakes up. The race! He runs to the finish line, but Tortoise is already there! The crowd is cheering for Tortoise. He's the winner! Hare is very mad, but he never teases Tortoise again.

2 Read and number the events in order.

- ☐ Tortoise crawls ahead of Hare.
- ☐ The animals cheer for Tortoise and Hare.
- ☐ Hare takes a nap under a tree.
- ☐ Tortoise wins the race.
- ☐ Hare runs ahead of Tortoise.

Richmond

LIVEWORKSHEETS