The prefix 'pre' and 'non'

Remember-

The prefix pre means before.

The prefix non means no, non or not.

Add the prefix 'pre' or 'non' to the word at the end of the sentence to complete each sentence.

e.g. The liquid from the tube is nontoxic . (toxic)

1. Were you able to _____ the show before it was shown on TV? (view)
2. You need to _____ the food before you eat it? (heat)
3. He plays football _____ . (stop)
4. _____ the machine before using it. (set)
5. Children can drink _____ wine. (alcoholic)
6. I cannot understand him, he is talking _____. (sense)
7. Wood is a _____ . (metal)
8. The apples are _____ before packing them. (washed)
9. You need to _____ the story before you edit or revise it. (write)
10. _____ things cannot move. (living)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS