

Look at the pictures. Tell whether they belong in the day or night sky. Type day or night below the picture.

Why don't we see stars during the day?

Why do we have day and night?

Match the description to the correct object.

It is round. It makes very bright light. You can see it during the day.

It is round. You can see it at night. It makes light.

It looks like a star, but it doesn't make light.

It is not in the sky. We live on it.

It has many colors. You can see it in the day sky.

It is an insect that you see at night.