

1. Drag and drop

Only child relatives twins single parent get divorced get engaged adopt

2 Complete the words in the conversations.

- 1 A Is that your boyfriend?
B Yes, his name's Rashid. We're a couple.
- 2 A Have you got any brothers or sisters?
B No, I haven't. I'm an o_____ ch_____.
- 3 A Have you got a large family?
B Yes, but I only see my r_____ at weddings.
- 4 A Has your friend left her husband?
B Yes. They're going to g_____ d_____.
- 5 A You look exactly like your sister.
B Yes, we're tw_____.
- 6 A Are you married?
B No, I'm a s_____ p_____.
- 7 A How many children would you like?
B Two or three. But I'd also like to a_____ one.
- 8 A Is your sister going out with Matt?
B Yes. They're going to g_____ e_____ next month.

2. Drag and Drop

3 Complete the article with the words in the box.

couples daughters get divorced grandfathers only child relatives single parent uncles

Family facts around the world

Did you know ...?

- Children have a mother and a father who are their parents. However, more children live with a ¹ single parent in the Americas, Europe, Oceania and Africa than in the rest of the world. In these families, it is the oldest relatives, such as grandmothers and ² _____, who help to look after the younger children.
- Children usually live with their parents and their brothers and sisters. Sharing a house with other ³ _____ is more common in Asia, the Middle East, South America and Africa. People in these areas often live with grandparents and great-grandparents, but some live with aunts and ⁴ _____, too.
- The main reason for finding a partner is usually to form a new family together. ⁵ _____ are more likely to be married in Africa, Asia and the Middle East. In the Americas, Europe and Oceania more people ⁶ _____ than in other places.
- Families in some countries have more children than families in others. It is unusual for African families to have an ⁷ _____. In Nigeria, women usually have five or six sons and ⁸ _____.

3. Choose the correct option

6 Choose the correct option to complete the sentences.

1 Have you ever lent money to your family?

No, but I 've lent / lent some to a friend last week.

2 Have you ever been camping?

Yes, but we haven't enjoyed / didn't enjoy it last time.

3 Have you been on a plane?

No, I haven't flown / didn't fly before.

4 Have you ever seen the Eiffel Tower?

Yes, I 've lived / lived in Paris when I was young.

5 Have you ever done yoga?

Yes, I 've had / had a yoga class yesterday.

6 Have you ever driven on the motorway?

Yes, I 've done / did it lots of times.

7 Have you ever been to China?

No, but I 've been / went to Japan a few years ago.

4. Choose the correct option

A 1 Have you ever done (you/ever/do) anything really exciting?

B Well, I've not travelled / didn't travel into space, if that's what you mean! But, yes, I drove/I've driven a Ferrari.

A Really? When have you done/ did you do that?

B Last year. My girlfriend gave/ has given me 30 minutes in a Ferrari as a present.

A How far did you go / have you gone?

B I didn't drive/ Haven't driven very far – about 50 km.

A Have you enjoyed/ Did you enjoy it?

B Yes, it was fun.

A What about your girlfriend? Has she done/ Did she do anything similar?

B Yes, she loves exciting sports and she often goes skiing and surfing. She have/has climbed Everest too, and she's flown/ flew a helicopter. But hasn't jumped /jumped out of a plane. I'm going to give her a parachute jump for her next birthday!