NAME: _____ DATE: _____

Let's Celebrate World Bee Day!

Choose the correct answer:

When is World Bee Day? _____

World Bee Day was made by _____ .

How much does a bee weigh? (How heavy is a bee?) _____

Bees must fly a distance equal to two times around the earth to make one pound of honey. _____

How many stomachs does a bee have? _____

A full honey stomach can weigh as much as the bee itself! _____

The disease (sickness) that is hurting bees is called _____ .

Choose the correct words to fill in the blanks:

The dust or powder from a flower is called _____ . A pollinator moves pollen from the _____ to the _____ in a flower.

Bees _____ flowers. Pollen can make you _____ .

Strawberry seeds are on the _____ but apple seeds are on the _____ .

Without pollinators, there would be no _____ or _____ .

Bees live in a _____ . They make honey. Honey is bee _____ !

Bees visit about _____ flowers to make one pound of honey!

Bees drink _____ from flowers.

==========

There is a sad problem for bees today. Bees are getting _____ . Over half the bees in the world have _____ .

There are three things that are making bees sick. First, when we _____ pesticides on plants, this can kill bees. Second, when we plant only one kind of flower, this is called _____ . Monoculture makes bees sick because their food is all the same, but they like to eat many kinds of nectar. Third, there are _____ like varroa mites who hurt the bees and make them sick.

We can help the bees by _____ more different kinds of flowers. We can also _____ of wild bees by having places for them to live. Finally, we can stop using _____ .

Connect the pictures to the correct words:

stamen

pistil

pollen

canola

meadow

honeycomb

mite

honey

Write a sentence (or a paragraph!) about why we celebrate World Bee Day.